

MISSION STATEMENT

The Northwest Society of Interior Designers is a regional organization of professional interior designers and resource affiliates dedicated to promoting excellence in design through

- career development
- peer networking
- continuing education and
- adherence to high ethical standards

CODE OF ETHICS

As a member of the Northwest Society of Interior Designers, it becomes the responsibility of each and every member to adhere to the following Code of Ethics:

In all client-designer relationships, it is assumed that each member will offer only the most professional advice, planning and execution of same, with the best interests of the client always coming first.

It is expected of each member designer that a personal commitment be made to continuing education.

All references or statements referring to other professional designers and/or their projects shall be objective and non-judgmental.

Each member shall adhere to industry standards in charges for services and/or furnishings supplied.

Finally, it becomes the ultimate responsibility of each member designer to support individual and group activities of the Northwest Society of Interior Designers that could positively affect public recognition and acceptance of the professional interior designer.